

Middle School to Junior High Fact Sheet

Our middle schools will be transitioning to a junior high school model. This change will maximize efficiency while ensuring that we continue to provide students with an outstanding educational experience. We firmly believe that students will be positively impacted by this change as it will allow them more access to a wider range of students, teachers, and support. To help you understand more about this shift and what it means for our schools, we've provided a quick fact sheet below with all the key details.
